The contract for grading the Capitol side walk was awarded to Reavely Unsworth of Carson City for $1,183.

It now transpires that when Thaxter shot the chicken he was acting under convenient legal advice from Sardis Summerfield. We believe it is customary for lawyers to make business for themselves when times are dull.

Tonight's Fight.

The fight at the Reno Opera House tonight, will be by all odds the biggest fistic event ever witnessed in Nevada, and the manager Geo. Allen, says both men have got to fight or not a cent do they get.

This will be Dunn's first battle in America, and as he is very desirous of making a reputation here, has trained very diligently, and is in the best possible condition. He will enter the ring tonight weighing about 149 pounds. He is a strong, active fellow, and a terrific hitter, which combined with cleverness should carry him through the hard fight he expects Purcell will give him.

He comes here with a splendid record, and is after more laurels and purses. Allen says he is a fighter from the jump.

Purcell is well known through the Coast, having won many hard fought contests, and those who know him and his achievements best, think he is a safe bet. He will enter the ring in the pink of condition weighing 148 and ready to make the fight of his life. He is not as compactly built as the other man, but it is claimed that he is more scientific, and a good deal more shifty on his feet. He has a peculiar style of his own which Dunn will find very hard to figure out, and being an exceedingly stiff puncher and a good ring general, it is calculated that he will put up a very engaging fight. The only man who ever whipped him was Maber, whom he afterwards whipped in short order, which his foregoing record will show.

Beat Patsy Murry of Chicago in 38 rounds, fought Jim Williams of Salt Lake an 8 round draw, beat Frank Ramsey of Portland in 27 rounds, beat Frank Sickels in 10 rounds, beat Jack Linburner in 10 rounds, fought a six-round draw with La Blanche, got the decision over Hennessey in 4 rounds, beat Billy Smith of Boston in 10 rounds, was defeated by Billy Maber 16 rounds, and afterwards beat Maber in 10 rounds, beat Jack Slavin in 11 rounds, beat Prof. Martell of San Francisco in 1 round, beat Arthur Walker in 4 rounds, beat Jack Burns of Philadelphia in 5 rounds, beat Martin Mulverhill of San Francisco in 3 rounds, beat young Dempsey of Salt Lake in 5 rounds.

Both men are confident, and a contest worth witnessing will occur. Beals and Millen, two local men, are to have a finish fight, and have trained hard for the event. They are also expected to give a red hot mill. Betting in Reno is 5 to 4 on Dunn.

A special train will leave Carson tonight at 8 o'clock and return after the fight. Round trip $1.50. A big crowd is going over from here.

THE CHICKEN CASE.

Thaxter Convicted and Fined—The Case Appealed.

There was a large crowd in the Police Court to hear the proceedings in the chicken case.

The defendant Harry Thaxter was charged with shooting firearms in the city limits.

G. R. Davis the first witness testified that on Wednesday morning he saw defendant shoot one of his chickens. The fowl was about the middle of the street. Mrs. Davis testified that she saw the young man fire the gun and the chicken fell dead shortly after. It was in the street when killed.

The defendant testified that the chickens come over by his fence, scratched holes under the fence and trespassed upon the property; that he had warned the owners of the chickens of their depredations, and Mrs. Davis had told him that he was at liberty to kill any of her chickens found in his yard.

When he shot the chicken it had been scratching by the fence and was about two feet off the walk when he fired.

On cross examination, witness admitted that he had scattered wheat along the fence; supposed it was poisoned.

George Thaxter, defendant's father testified that the chickens had annoyed him for years and made flour-culture a lost art on his premises. He had sown a great deal of seed which did not come up and some of it had been scratched by the hens.

After the arguments the Court said:

"I regret to be compelled to decide cases where all the parties involved are friends and neighbors, but this shooting in the city limits must be stopped. You are a young man, but old enough to know better. This scattering of poisoned wheat along the walk as a bait is very serious. Suppose immediately after a chicken had eaten it, had been killed for the table and poisoned a whole family! There is some excuse, for you are not versed in law. I shall find you guilty and make the fine small, as this is your first offense. The sentence of the Court is a fine of one dollar and costs, and I trust this will be a sufficient lesson to you."

Summerfield, the defendant's attorney, asked for a stay of five days, that he might appeal the case.

TELEGRAPHIC JOTS.

Three negro boys were hanged in Alabama yesterday for a criminal assault on a woman.

Another Melbourne bank failed yesterday.

Two and a half millions in gold will be shipped to Europe today.

The Spring Fight.

The Tribune's account of the fistic encounter between Will Davis and Harry Thaxter, while it has the merit of originality, is an account which is directly opposed to the version of a hundred eye witnesses. Thaxter was groggy and whipped when the bystanders interfered, and Davis' face showed no signs of encounter. The cause of the row was Thaxter using filthy language to Davis who knocked him down for his insulting remarks.
